

GREAT DINING 2006 ✱ Chicago®

NOVEMBER 2006

The Short List

Costume

crazy: "Give a kid an ASTRONAUT SUIT and an empty room, and he can be on the moon in 12 seconds," says Mark Levine, a Lake Barrington-based toy designer (www.aeromaxtoys.com). From Nov. 17th through 19th, parents and kids can test Levine's line of "real" dress-up clothes—think NASA suits with patches—at the CHICAGO INTERNATIONAL TOY & GAME FAIR (at the Renaissance Schaumburg; for info, www.chitag.com).