GET REAL GEAR DRESS UP FOR KIDS™

Takes Kids Into Halloween And Lasts For Playtime Years Beyond

Six Embroidered Outfits with Accessories to Choose From— Get More Use Out of Costumes!

Lake Barrington, IL—‘Tis the season to pick out Halloween costumes and prepare for that candy-filled night. But many times, it’s parents who are left with the tummy ache over how much money they wasted on a costume that gets worn one time and then discarded. Halloween costumes are often made of felt and are cheaply made and rip or tear that Hallowed night. Get Real Gear to the rescue!

Priced at about the same amount as costumes of far less quality, the six Get Real Gear costumes, made by Aeromax Inc., are themed to real-life careers that many kids aspire to. Since they really like dressing up and play-acting these careers outside the bounds of Halloween and in everyday playtime, these costumes will get tons of use. That makes parents feel like it was money well-spent! Each costume has so many cool details on it that kids and parents will appreciate: embroidery instead of just decals and adjustability to help the kids get the most wear out of them. Plus great accessories to complete the look (so many costumes charge extra for each hat or belt)!

The six costumes are each offered in four sizes: 2/3 for ages 2 to 3, 4/6 for ages 3 to 5, 8/10 for ages 6 to 8, 12/14 for ages 10 to 12. (Costumes can be hard to find for older kids that aren’t deemed too babyish by big kids, but big kids love these career costumes!) Here are the six Get Real Gear Get-Ups:

- Jr. Train Engineer: All aboard with our newest costume! Adorable matching overalls and hat, and decked out with real leather gloves and red bandana! $43.95
- Jr. Flight Suit: Top quality features of this one-piece jumpsuit include easy Velcro “buttons,” pockets galore, wide elastic waistband and ankle bands for custom fit. Embroidered NASA logos on included hat and on suit. To the moon! $37.95

- Jr. Executive Chef: Whatcha got cookin'? This gear includes a double-breasted (whose buttons can reverse left to right and vice versa) and embroidered chef's coat with lots of pockets, top quality checkered pants (nice enough to wear for everyday wear), tall and poofy genuine embroidered chef's hat and cooking mitt with button attachment. $54.95
- Jr. Champion Racing Suit: Ready, set, go! Your kid is going to love this silky & smooth one-piece racing suit so much that he's going to want to wear it day and night! Loaded with embroidery and logos, stitched and padded knee and elbow patches, full-length zipper, official tabbed neck and ankle straps, elastic waistband for custom fit and rear seat pockets. The included racing hat is fully adjustable and embroidered, and just may become his or her favorite hat. $49.95

- Jr. Firefighter Suit: We've all heard that after 9/11, kids' interest and admiration for our heroic firefighters has intensified, and rightly so. Maybe that's one reason our 100% heavy duty cotton suit is so popular. It includes an adjustable hard helmet; adjustable bib overalls with pockets and reinforced knee patches; adjustable suspenders; coat with buckles, zipper, pockets, and authentic gauntlet cuffs; and reinforced elbow patches. Boys & girls alike adore this suit. $59.95.

- Jr. Police Officer: Say no more: this outfit includes handcuffs. OK, plastic handcuffs that come with two keys, that are pretty easy to slip out of, but what kid wouldn't like something that comes with handcuffs?! Add to that a police belt with holders for the included baton (made of plastic, of course), a whistle, ID wallet, and police radio. The costume itself features a well-made 100% cotton shirt with embroidered police patches and a nice pair of all-cotton navy pants that could pull double duty at school. It's all topped off with an official-looking cap with badge. $57.95
