Imaginary Dress Up & Fun with Aeromax's Dress Up Clothing *Review*

Do you have a little one that just loves to dress up? Are you looking for a Halloween costume that can be a costume AND to be used again and again after Halloween for dress up? I have found a great company that not only allows for just that. Kambry looks cute and has so much fun in the Jr. Cheerleader outfit.

I love everything about the Jr Cheerleader outfit! I love that it comes with the cheer outfit, briefs, pom-pom's and hair scrunchie. The price is great for all that you get and the quality is fabulous!!

I seriously adore all of these new outfits! What can imaginary play do for your kids? The possibilities are endless and not to mention the laughter and the memories that it leaves in your heart! I feel that imaginary play and playing dress up sparks so much with the kids. Dress up play is a favorite among all ages of children, whether it's dressing up in dad's baseball uniform or having fun with mom's closet. There is a great variety of all sorts of different types of costumes, masks and accessories for children to select from. Costumes come in designs such as fireman and police uniforms, doctor and veterinarian uniforms, engineer suits, magic hats with cape and gloves, dresses, waitress outfits, cherubs, devils, witches, ballerina and popular character suits with capes and muscle chests to name a few. Great accessories such as crowns, tiara sets, ninja swords, light sabers, cowboy hats, purses complete with keys and cell phones, doctor and medical kits and magic kits can be found. Dress up play allows your child to use their imagination in a fun way through role play and acting out adventures.
