

My 1st Career Gear Line by Aeromax

Do your kids love to dress up? It is so much fun for your preschooler to put on an outfit and imagine they are someone else. The My 1st Career Gear Line by Aeromax has some great dress up clothes. Not only is the line absolutely adorable, but also completely affordable!

For only $10.95 you can help your kids imagine they are a doctor, chef, firefighter, policeman and more.

My 1st Career Gear Road Crew • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

Have a shovel-ready project that needs attending? Kids look cool and comfortable with this realistic orange vest that can be spotted down the hall or around the block! Details include printed yellow road stripes, construction logos and a make-pretend cell phone graphic peeking out of a breast pocket. The bottom of the vest is adorned with the phrase “road crew” in large capital letters. Add your own yellow construction hat for a nifty head-to-toe look (we sell that too!).

My 1st Career Gear Chef • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

The kitchen is the place to be when wearing this white chef's coat adorned, in graphic style, with everything a master chef might need – printed glove, spatula, spoon, double breasted red buttons and obligatory red kerchief tied at the neckline. The breast pocket is stitched in black letters with the word “chef.”

My 1st Career Gear Doctor (Blue) • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

Stethoscope? Check. Tongue depressor? Check. Pad of prescription forms? Check. The doctor is in when kids slip on this v-neck outfit that runs from shoulder to thigh. This blue outfit complements the additional pink doctor's garment, which some say is even cuter than the blue.

My 1st Career Gear Doctor (Pink) • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

Kids can be pretty smart in pink when they slip on this doctor's garb complete with make pretend stethoscope “tucked” into a pocket. Special touches include a patch that identifies this doctor as a member of the Children's Hospital, which some say is even cuter than the blue!

My 1st Career Gear Firefighter • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

This handsome v-neck firefighting outfit transforms any kid into a key member of the hottest crew in town. Aeromax adds tons of features like a printed axe, 911 cell phone “tucked” into one pocket, an American flag arm patch and you-can-see-me bands of yellow and black across the middle, bottom and upper arms. Add your own fireman's hat for a complete head-to-toe look (we sell that too!).

My 1st Career Gear Police • Ages 3-6 • $10.95

If there's an emergency, this well dressed police officer is ready with pretend printed brass buttons, black belt and shiny buckle, police badge, arm patches and sergeant stripes. Aeromax never forgets little details like printed handcuffs, baton and nifty badge.
