How to Choose Toys That Deserve a Place on Your Shelves

★ ★ ★ Ratings and reviews

Ratings and reviews are another way to get a different perspective on a product. Here at the National Lekotek Center we offer ratings and reviews of toys and products for children with special needs on our website, ableplay.org.

Here are some of the highly rated AblePlay products.

- Playaway Toys' Rainy Day Therapy line received five out of five stars in Physical, Sensory and Social/Emotional.
- Plushy Feely's Kimochis received five in Communicative and Social/Emotional.
- SmartNoggin Toys' NogginStik received five in Cognitive.
- Aeromax Capes were rated five in Physical.
- Ready Set Resources Bright and Beyond Activity Cards received a five in Communicative and Cognitive.

You may not be a fan of Amazon, but it does a decent job of posting reviews on products. Input is pulled from a large and diverse pool of people. Mommy blogs are another resource that provide a plethora of information and are "Mom and kid approved."
